DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On May 31, 2019, Scott Weaver filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") as a result of an influenza vaccination he received on October 7, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 20, 2020, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for his SIRVA. On November 20, 2020, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation ("Proffer") indicating Petitioner should be awarded $73,785.71 (comprising $72,500.00 for pain and suffering and $1,285.71 for out of pocket expenses). Proffer at 6. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $73,785.71 (comprising $72,500.00 for pain and suffering and $1,285.71 for out of pocket expenses) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
